

SECOND INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM ON
"NATIONAL SECURITY & NATIONAL COMPETITIVENESS: OPEN SOURCE SOLUTIONS"

Omni Shoreham Hotel, Washington, D.C.
2-4 (Tuesday-Thursday) November 1993

NOTE: As a courtesy to those who register but can only drop in for selected events, this symposium will run strictly on time. Speakers and participants are expected to respect the preciousness of one another's time. A three course served lunch is provided each day (banquet seating through-out the day; there will also be a row of tables with power for lap-tops and tape recorders).

Draft Schedule, Iteration #38

Tuesday, 2 November 1993

- 0700-0800 Coffee Service, Registration
- 0800-0830 "Golden Candle" Awards for Innovation in Open Source Intelligence (OSCINT) Endeavors
- 0830-0900 Overview Session, Mr. Robert D. Steele, Host "From School House to White House: Creating A National Knowledge Strategy and A National Knowledge Foundation To Foster National Competitiveness"
- 0900-0930 Mr. Arthur Elias, President, Information Management (and author/editor of Information Industry Yearbook) "Overview of the International Information Industry in 1993"
- 0930-1000 Mr. Paul Wallner, Open Source Coordinator, "Overview of the U.S. Intelligence Community's Open Source Requirements & Capabilities"
- 1000-1030 Dr. Alejandro Politi, Instituto Affari Internazionali, Italy, "Alternative Methods for Satisfying National Intelligence Needs: The Government-Think Tank Cooperative Solution"
- 1030-1100 Mr. Phil Lader, Deputy Director for Management, Office of Management and Budget (also member, Vice-President's team to study government), "The Role of Information in Re-Engineering the Government and Enabling Policy Leadership"
- 1100-1200 Break

- 1200-1245 Lunch Served In Place
- 1245-1330 Mr. Alvin Toffler, "National Knowledge Strategies and Information War & Peace" (his latest book on this topic goes to press in April and on sale in September of this year)
- 1330-1400 Questions & Answers with Mr. Toffler
- 1400-1430 Break
- 1430-1600 Consumer Panel: CEOs & Assistant Secretaries Energy/Environment--
"Our Needs for Unclassified Intelligence" (Moderator: Mr. James Thomas, Battelle, 15 minutes introduction, 15 minutes each, 15 minutes Q&A)
- 1600-1630 LtGen Norm Wood, USAF (Ret), former Director of (U.S.) Intelligence Community Staff, "'Intelligence Conversion' and International Corporate Information Strategies for Profit"
- 1630-1800 Reception (Heavy Hors d'Ouerves, Cash Bars)
Interest Group Sign-Ups (Important to Allocate Rooms)

Wednesday, 3 November 1993

- 0700-0800 Coffee Service and Static Displays
- 0800-0830 Mr. John Berbrich, Defense Intelligence Functional Manager for Production, "Defense Intelligence Open Source Issues & Directions"
- 0830-0900 Mr. Tom Pedtke, National Air Intelligence Center, "Bringing Functionality to the Open Source Network: A Report on Storefront Services and Tools"
- 0900-0930 Ms. Terry Kees, Chair Advanced Information Processing and Analysis Steering Group (Intelligence Community): "Integrating Information Handling Research & Development Efforts of the Intelligence Community, the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency, and the Private Sector"
- 0930-1000 Dr. Gordon Oehler, Director, Non-Proliferation Center, "Open Sources and Strategic Intelligence: A Vision of the Future"
- 1000-1200 Displays 1000-1200
Interest Group A in Regency Ballroom from 1105-1150
All Other Interest Groups in Assigned Rooms from 1010-1055

- 1200-1245 Lunch Served in Place
- 1245-1330 Mr. Philippe Malaud, President of the European Economic Union, French Minister Plenipotentiary and Member of the European Parliament, former Minister of Information, "The European Economic Union, Economic Intelligence, and the Age of Information"
- 1330-1400 Break
- 1400-1430 Mr. Mitch Kapor, Founder, Electronic Frontier Foundation, "International Public Networks"
- 1430-1500 Mr. Dan Himelfarb, President of the Society of Competitive Intelligence Professionals, "Representative Open Source Intelligence Requirements from Chief Executive Officers"
- 1500-1530 Mr. Thomas Eger, Vice President and Director, Processing Group, The Analytic Sciences Corporation, "The Information Refinery as an Element of National Security & National Competitiveness"
- 1530-1600 Mr. Brewster Kahle, WAIS, Inc. "The Wide Area Concept for a Global Information Architecture"
- 1600-1630 Mr. Mert McGill, Vice President for Legal Information Services, Mead Data Central, "Private Sector Capabilities & Limitations in Collecting, Processing, and Disseminating Intelligence"
- 1630-1700 Mr. Jan Leijonhielm, Head of Bureau, Department of Defence Analysis, National Defence Research Establishment, Sweden, "National Defence Research: the Critical Role of Open Sources and Products"
- 1700-1900 Displays (Cash Bar) 1700-1900
Interest Group A in Regency Ballroom 1805-1900
All Other Interest Groups in Assigned Rooms 1710-1755

Thursday, 4 November 1993

- 0700-0800 Coffee Service and Static Displays
- 0800-0830 Ms. Helen Burwell, President of Burwell Enterprises and Past President, Association of Independent Information Producers, "Trends, Tools, and Gaps in Data Acquisition and Online Multi-Media Data Services"
- 0830-0900 Mr. Paul A. Caldwell, President, PSYTEP Corporation, "The International Investigative Market: Sources, Methods, and Products"

- 0900-0930 Mr. Robert Kohler, Vice President and General Manager, TRW Avionics and Surveillance Group "The Private Sector Role in National Intelligence"
- 0930-1000 Mr. Robert Hall, Editor, Jane's Intelligence Review, "Jane's Approach to the New Threat Environment"
- 1000-1200 Displays 1000-1200
Interest Group A in Regency Ballroom 1105-1150
All Other Interest Groups in Assigned Rooms 1010-1055
- 1200-1245 Lunch Served In Place
- 1245-1330 Mr. Keiji Shima, Director, Shima Media Institute, former Chairman of NHK (world's largest broadcasting company), "Information, Media, and Politics in Japan and Far East Asia"
- 1330-1400 Break
- 1400-1430 Dr. Gregory Treverton, Vice-Chairman, National Intelligence Council, "Representative Open Source Intelligence Requirements from Assistant Secretaries of All Major Departments of Government"
- 1430-1500 Dr. Vint Cerf, President, INTERNET Society, "INTERNET Directions & Opportunities"
- 1500-1530 Dr. Lloyd S. Etheredge, Director, The Policy Sciences Center, Inc., Yale, "National Knowledge Strategies, The Intelligence Community, and the Library of the Future"
- 1530-1600 Mr. Predrag Pale, Chairman of the Coordinating Committee, Ministry of Science, Technology, and Informatics, Republic of Croatia, "Croatia in the Information Age: How a Country With Nothing is Making its Future Through Leveraging Informatics and Public Sources of Information"
- 1600-1630 Yigal Carmon, Advisor on Counterterrorism to the Prime Minister of Israel, "Open Sources and the War on Terrorism"
- 1630-1800 No-Host Networking Reception (Cash Bar)

INTEREST GROUPS

NOTE: These groups will be by subscription (no cost, first to sign up by mail or at symposium), and will be limited to numbers shown for each Group/Room. Room assignments will be made daily based on sign-up sheets. It is our hope that individuals will plan their participation so that every display is visited at some point--the displays have been carefully developed or recruited for this specific audience.

Group A:	In Ballroom, unlimited	Group B:	Cabinet Room, 55
Group C:	Council Room, 45	Group D:	Eisenhower Room, 40
Group E:	Kennedy Room, 40	Group F:	Roosevelt Room, 40
Group G1:	Senate Room, 40	Group G2:	Embassy Room, 65

Wednesday, 3 November 1993

Morning Sessions

- A: UNLIMITED SEATING: Arthur Miller & Associates, "Cyberspace Law: Who Owns Information Anyway, and How Must We Change the Law and It's Electronic Enforcement?"
Panelists: 01 Hacker representative
02
03
04
- B: Mr. Dan Himelfarb, President of the Society of Competitive Intelligence Professionals "Business Analysts' Requirements for Open Sources & Methods"
Panelists: 01 Mr. George Kardulias, TASC
02 Mr. Jack Oman, TRW/ESL
03 AIIP Representative
04
- C: Dr. Elin Whitney-Smith, "Information Technology and How We Think: The Impact of Information Revolutions on Perception"
Panelists: 01 John Petersen, President Arlington Institute
02 Roger Karracker, author "Highways of the Mind"
03 Linda Garcia, OTA
04 Ann Hayes, English artist
05 John Perry Barlow, co-founder Electronic Frontier Foundation
- D: Mead Data Central, "LEXIS/NEXIS and the Privatization of Intelligence: Corporate Strategies for Success"
Panelists: 01
02
03

E: Ms. Gladys Cotter (NASA), "Global Change and Environmental Multi-Media Data Sources and Tools"

Panelists: 01 NOAA Representative
02 LANDSAT Representative
03 EARTHSAT Representative

F: Mr. Paul Caldwell, President, PSYTEP Corporation, "The International Investigative Market: Sources, Methods, and Products"

Panelists: 01 Mr. Richie Horowitz, Executive Services International
02 Mr. Norbett Garrett, Kroll Associates
03

G: Information Associations of the World and Key Books in the Open Source Intelligence Arena--Table-Top Displays

Evening Sessions

A: UNLIMITED SEATING: Dr. Jennifer Sims, "Legislation, Money, and Policy: Directions for 1994-1996"

Panelists: 01 Dr. Mike Nelson, OVP or Mrs. Nelson, NPR Intelligence
02 Mr. James Wilson, House Science Committee Staff
03 Mr. Bruce McConnell, OMB Information Policy

B: Mr. Joichi Ito, "Open Source Networking with Japan: A 'Win-Win' Strategy"

Panelists: 01
02
03

C: Hacker's View of Needed Legal Changes

Panelists: 01 Emmanuele, Editor of 2600: The Hacker's Quarterly
02 Phiber Optic
03 Rop from Hack-tic
04 Mr. Glenn Tenney, Esq., Organizer of Hacker's Conference

D: Office of the Director of Central Intelligence, Open Source Coordinator, "Open Source Tools"--COTR Discussion of Technical Capabilities & Directions"

Panelists: 01 Mr. Paul Livingston, systems specialist
02 Mr. Tim Hendrickson, Foreign S&T Center
03 Defense Technical Information Center
04 Foreign Aerospace S&T Center

E: Mr. Kent Potter and Mr. Mike Decker, Delfin Systems, "Issues in Multi-Media Data Accession From Heterogeneous Remote Databases"

Panelists: 01
02

F: Dr. Stevan Dedijer, Lund University, Sweden, "To BI or Not to BI: Issues in Business Intelligence for National Competitiveness"

Panelists: 01
02
03

G: Information Associations of the World and Key Books in the Open Source Intelligence Arena--Table-Top Displays

Thursday, 4 November 1993

Morning Sessions

A: UNLIMITED SEATING: Mr. David MacMichael, Association of National Security Alumni, "Soviet Exploitation of U.S. Open Sources During the Cold War"

Panelists: 01 Col Vladimir B. Barkovsky, Ph. D., former Deputy Director, KGB Science & Technology Institute
02 Col Yuri I. Modin, Ph. D., former Deputy Director, Research Institute on Intelligence Problems
03 Col Vsevelod I. Gapon, former Deputy Chief of Division, KGB
04 Col Yuri H. Totrov, former KGB Section Chief for Counterintelligence (Central Intelligence Agency Affairs)

B: Ms. Janet Gotkin, President, Association of Independent Information Producers, "Review of Capabilities & Directions in Intermediary Services"

Panelists: 01 Mead Data Central representative?
02 DIALOG representative?
03
04

C: Dr. Ross Stapleton, "Navigating the INTERNET in Search of Unclassified Intelligence"

Panelists: 01 Hank Roberts, WELL-person
02 Mike Loucks, TASC
03
04

D: Mr. Winn Schwartau, Executive Director, INTERPACT, "Information Warfare: Waging and Winning Conflict in Cyberspace"

01 Hacker representative

02
03

E: Mr. Andrew Shepard, Community Management Staff, "Intelligence Analysts Speak Out On Their Open Source Requirements"

Panelists: 01 Mr. Jack Davis, Master Analyst (Retired)
02 Ms. Karin Dolan, Senior USMC Analyst
03 Theater CINC Analyst
04 UK/MOD Analyst

F: Mr. Jack Quinn, Japanese intelligence specialist, "Open Sources and Methods About Japan, and Japanese Utilization of Open Sources and Methods"

Panelists: 01
02
03
04

G: Information Associations of the World and Key Books in the Open Source Intelligence Arena--Table-Top Displays